Research Technician
Center for Advancement in Managing Pain

School of Nursing

The School of Nursing is seeking a research technician to assist in the laboratory of Dr. Kyle Baumbauer, working on studies that examine the impact of inflammation and injury on sensory neuron function, and how those changes contribute to the development of pathologic pain states. The research technician will be expected to perform experiments on mice under the direct supervision of the principal investigator, and will be expected to produce data, schedule experiments, manage databases, and take part in experimental analysis.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

1. Undergraduate degree in Neuroscience or related field
2. Experience in animal behavior
3. Demonstrable experience working as a team member and ability to work well in a group environment.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS

1. Basic understanding of neuronal function.
2. Basic experience in tissue histology, neuroanatomy, microscopy, and molecular biology
3. Possess excellent planning and organizational skills
4. Possess demonstrable skills in oral and written communication in science, including ability to independently write reports and present data required.

APPOINTMENT TERMS

This is a full time, temporary position for a period of up to six months, with the possibility of extension dependent upon grant funding and needs. The work schedule is Monday through Friday, 8:30am-5:00pm with a half hour lunch. Candidate must be willing to travel between UConn (Storrs) and UConn Health (Farmington). Review of applications will begin immediately. Successful candidate will be contacted to schedule an interview. Hourly salary is commensurate with experience.

TO APPLY

Please submit a resume, cover letter and contact information for three professional references to: kyle.baumbauer@uconn.edu with the email subject: Research Technician Position.

Employment of the successful candidate is contingent upon the successful completion of a pre-employment criminal background check. (Search # HRXX-XXX)

All employees are subject to adherence to the State Code of Ethics which may be found at http://www.ct.gov/ethics/site/default.asp.

The University of Connecticut is committed to building and supporting a multicultural and diverse community of students, faculty and staff. The diversity of students, faculty and staff continues to increase, as does the number of honors students, valedictorians and salutatorians who consistently make UConn their top choice. More than 100 research centers and institutes serve the University’s teaching, research, diversity and outreach missions, leading to UConn’s ranking as one of the nation’s top research universities. UConn’s faculty and staff are the critical link to fostering and expanding our vibrant, multicultural and diverse University community. As an Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity employer, UConn encourages applications from women, veterans, people with disabilities and members of traditionally underrepresented populations.