Personal Care Assistant Job Opportunity

A family in the Storrs area is looking for a Personal Care Assistant (PCA) for their young adult with Cerebral Palsy. This position will include in-home care, assisting with college classes, as well as travelling to community activities. Young professionals and current students welcome to apply.

Job Responsibilities include:
- assisting our son with light exercise
- supporting our son with homework and other community college related activities
- assisting in daily living activities (ie..transfers, communication, feeding)
- aiding with community activities (movies, outings, walking, going to the gym).

Qualifications and Desired Skills:
- Experience working with children or young adults.
- Good physical health
- Must have own transportation and valid driver’s license
- Motivated and willing to learn (training will be provided)
- Positive outlook
- Basic Computer skills
- Good sense of humor

Position is ideal for young professionals and college students. Areas of education could include current students or recent graduates of:
- Education
- Special Education
- Physical Therapy
- Speech and Language
- Psychology
- Allied Health or Communication
- Nursing, or Healthcare.

Current hours available are:
- Weekdays 3-8, and weekends (Saturday and/or Sunday). Flexible hours available

  GOOD PAY

  Pay commensurate with experience.

We are located minutes from UCONN and EASTERN.

Please email resume or any questions to Brenda Stenglein at brensten1@gmail.com. We will respond to submissions promptly.