Lab Technician

Prestigious and rapidly growing health intelligence company seeks Laboratory Technicians in Branford to help navigate data analysis. This position is open due to increased volume of testing with Covid, Next Generation Sequencing and Histology.

Responsibilities

- Perform molecular testing of samples from various sources
- Prepare NGS libraries for exome sequencing, genome sequencing, target sequencing and RNA sequencing
- Ability to work independently
- Understanding and adherence to specific protocols
- CAP and CLIA regulations knowledge

Ideal Candidate Must Have

- Bachelor's or Master's in Biology
- 3+ years of clinical lab experience
- Experience working in either commercial or clinical lab
- Advanced problem solving skills
- ASCP MB Certification is preferred

Outstanding benefits to include - if position goes permanent:

- Major health
- Excellent PTO program in addition to allotted sick days
- 401(K) with a 6% Match
- Tuition reimbursement
- Eligible for coverage on Day 1

Send resumes to healthcare@mackeystaffing.com.

Please note, all resumes will be reviewed and considered; however, only candidates whose resumes match our clients' job specifications will be contacted. Unfortunately, with the volume of resumes we receive it is impossible to respond to everyone. In order to expedite consideration of your candidacy, please be sure to include your resume with your reply.