Apply now to our July 2021 Graduate Nurse Residency Program!

To apply visit bristolhealth.org and click on “Careers”

The Bristol Hospital graduate nurse residency program is designed to support and transition newly licensed registered nurses from academic education into professional practice in an acute care setting. The foundation of the program is to provide insight and development opportunities intended to optimize their experience for the first year and create a positive foundation for the rest of their nursing career.

For more information or questions contact:

Erica G. Rizzo DNP, RN, CNE
Nursing Professional Development Specialist
Graduate Nurse Residency Program
Phone: 860-585-3056
E-mail: erizzo@bristolhospital.org
Program Overview:

- 2 week classroom orientation
  Includes review of Policies and Procedures, Equipment, Skills Training, Simulation & Telemetry Course
- 12+ week orientation with 1:1 preceptor (extended for specialty areas)
  Monthly class for 12 months

  Class Topics:
  - Role Transition
  - Stress Management, Mindfulness & Self-Care
  - Prioritization, Time Management & Delegation
  - Nursing & Social Media
  - Effective Communication
  - Patient Education
  - Conflict Management, Incivility & Resiliency
  - Emotional Intelligence
  - Critical Thinking & Managing Changes in Patient Condition
  - Evidence Based Practice
  - Unintentional Bias & Culturally Responsive Care
  - Legal Aspects of Nursing, Documentation and DAR Notes
  - Business of Healthcare
  - Completion of an EBP Project and Presentation at Annual EBP Fair
  - Attendance at Annual Nursing Professional Practice Day
  - Online Learning Modules for ICU, ED, Behavioral Health Specialties
  - Periop 101 for OR Nurse Residents