RN -Residency Programs
FOR NEW GRADS and those looking to get back to ACUTE CARE
Year-long, full-time PAID Professional Development positions
LOCATIONS: East U.S. States

Prestigious teaching hospitals, including a University Academic Medical Center. The hospitals participating range from community hospitals to Level 1 Trauma Centers. So, you may choose the size of facility which is a fit for you!

This is an opportunity to grow and gain clinical experience across a variety of settings in a supportive environment that includes mentoring, professional development and peer support.

Areas of specialty for you to choose from may include: Behaviora
Emergency Services, ICU/Critical Care, Maternal/Newborn/NICU, Surgical Services, Med/Surg and PCU

COMPENSATION:
• In addition to being a paid RN, Sign-On Bonuses range from $5,000-$15,000

PROGRAM STRUCTURE:
• 5 weeks in classroom
• 6 weeks of preceptorship
• Remainder of 1st year: you will have a mentor who will be there for questions at any time and regularly scheduled meetings
• Receive recognition from facility with Project collaboration with Mentor
• Monthly Resident Seminars / and optional Charge Nurse education
• Monthly meet w/Directors to chart your progress and plan your future career goals
• These Residencies are great opportunities to build your network; as you will work closely and develop relationships with leadership and RN peers

OVERVIEW:
• The focus is the new grad RN’s growth and development.
• Many new grads gain specialty certifications, become preceptors, mentors, charge nurses, and /or grow into other specialties/service lines. There are career pathways n place to help you move and grow within your career. The units are very welcoming to new grads and are very team oriented and tight-knit. There is a community and family like culture and environment.
• You will be trained to be an Expertise in handling sophisticated medical equipment

LOCATIONS:
Opportunities in East U.S. states – some on coast with beaches – some in mountainous areas
• The locations are amazing. Miles of the best hiking trails by foot or mountain bike. The possibilities are endless when it comes to exploring the outdoors. The downtown areas are unique and eclectic. Thriving art scenes, fine dining, fantastic stores. Lively cities with gorgeous architecture.
• Or if you want to be near the beach, there are Residency Programs at facilities within minutes to miles of white sandy beaches.

CONTACT for full details:
Patty Wyatt / Please send your resume to patty@clinipost.com
direct 972.342.5818 / Permanent-Hire Healthcare Recruitment
CLINIPOST / Visit us at clinipost.com / Healthcare Recruiting for the past 14 years

CLINIPOST
Medical Healthcare Search Firm